

On the occasion of the MGFI Pan-Hellenic campaign for the protection and the regeneration of Greek forest, a big concert on the forest, with 15 artists, will be organised on the 22nd of September at the Panathinaïko stadium, co-organised by the Goulandris Natural Science Museum, Skai and Melodia radio station.

The motto of the concert: “ Together, we sing on the green, lets sing for life”.

The tickets are available at Metropolis and on the website www.ticketservices.gr, at the price of 10€.

Big artists that will participate gracefully on the concert are : Haris Alexiou, George Andreou, Stamatis Kraounakis, Lavrentis Maheritsas, Dimitris Mitropanos, Manolis Mitsias, Thanos MIKROUTSIKOS, Giorgos Dalaras, Vassilis Papakonstantinou, Nikos Portokaloglou, Dionysis Savvopoulos, Babis Stokas, Dionysis Tsaknis , Ellen Tsaligopoulou, et Maria Farantouri.

The same day, Skai radio will organise radio marathon destined to collect fund.

The fund of the concert and radio marathon will go on a special account of Goulandris Natural Science Museum opened at the national Bank of Greece, on the name of “Goulandris Natural Science Museum – A tree for Greece”. The account number is: 141/ 480 209 – 86, an account opened after an agreement of cooperation established between the Goulandris Natural Science Museum in Athens, the ministry of rural development and “A tree for Greece”.